

Blind Man's Bluff

Erwin Lutzer

I. Introduction.

A. Topic: false teachers within Christendom.

B. Text: II Peter 2.

II. The blind lead the blind through their lifestyle.

A. People call immorality the path to holiness.

B. The place for false teachers is hell.

III. The blind lead by their arrogant words and promises.

IV. False teachers fall into an accelerated state of sin, whereas the righteous keep growing. We need to be wary of falling into a sinful lifestyle.

Application questions:

1. What is an example of a false teacher leading people through his or her lifestyle today? Explain.

2. What kind of false promises are being touted from religious pulpits in our culture?

3. How can one explain the strong language used to picture the condemnation of the false teachers? Were they believers to begin with?
