

God's Person—Does He Hide or Seek?

Erwin Lutzer

I. Introduction.

A. No one is able to rise above his concept of God.

B. Our view of God determines our view of ourselves.

II. God is a personal invisible Spirit. (I Timothy 1:17, Hebrews 11)

III. God is Trinity. (Deuteronomy 6:4, Matthew 28:19-20)

IV. God is eternal. He always existed and is without beginning. (Isaiah 57:15, Psalm 90:2)

V. God is holy. He is separate and transcendent morally.

VI. God dwells with the contrite and lowly of spirit.

A. He dwells with the humble.

B. He crushes people in order to uplift them and dwell with them.

VII. God hides, but He also seeks.

Application questions:

1. How would you describe the mystery of God to a new Christian?

2. How does God seek us?

3. Why is our view of God so important?
