

How Christ Taught His Disciples

Erwin Lutzer

I. Introduction.

- A. Text: Mark 4.
- B. Jesus' teaching stirred up people's thinking. (Luke 23)
- C. He was a creative teacher.
- D. We are to teach as Jesus taught.

II. How Jesus taught.

- A. Jesus taught multitudes and one on one.
- B. Jesus taught in the common experiences of life.
- C. Jesus allowed His disciples to fail. God uses failure to teach us lessons we would not learn otherwise.
- D. Jesus' teaching was always related to life. Faith cannot be learned academically.
- E. Jesus stimulated through questions.
- F. Jesus left the power of His own example. His actions spoke for themselves.

III. God is with you on your boat in the storms of life.

Application questions:

1. What kind of relationship might you teach someone one on one?

---

2. Why is failure an important part of the learning process? When have you experienced this?

---

---

3. How can we teach others through our own example? What is something you can do to teach others this week in this way?
