

How to Make a Decision

Stuart Briscoe

I. Introduction.

II. Peter was aware of opportunity when it came his way. The true witness with power grabs the opportunity with both hands.

III. Peter was alert to the questions that were being asked. We need to do a better understanding of understanding the Bible.

IV. Peter was anxious to communicate. We must be able to give the whole truth.

V. Peter was able to adapt the application. We must be able to adapt to the situation and bring people from where they are to where they need to be.

VI. Peter lays the bedrock of his message on Christ.

A. Christ died according to God's plan.

B. Christ was risen.

C. Christ was exalted.

D. Christ baptizes with His Spirit.

Applications questions:

1. How would you assess your own ability to answer biblical questions? What is your plan for learning more about the Bible?

2. Why is it important to adapt to witnessing opportunities?

3. How does Peter's message give us a model by which to share Christ with others?
