

No Small Stir Stuart Briscoe

I. Introduction.

- A. A great stir was caused over “the way” in Acts.
- B. Jesus called himself the way. (John 14:6)
- C. Jesus did not come to bring peace but a challenging message.

II. Christ is the way to heaven.

- A. If there is truth then there is also error.
- B. We cannot go around pretending like everyone is right.
- C. We have to comfortable telling people that Jesus is the only way.
- D. People want a way to heaven as a reward for their endeavors so they can spend eternity bragging, but heaven is not earned.

III. Christ is the way to God.

- A. Men try to find God but only God reveals himself to man.
- B. God only reveals himself to man through Jesus.
- C. A human being without God is like a ship without rudders, but one with God is like a ship with a rudder and a sail and a wind powering it.

IV. Christ is the way to peace. When people have peace with God they can experience the peace of God that surpasses understanding.

V. To be a Christian means to be locked into the message that Jesus is the way.

- A. One’s work keeps him from the way.
- B. One’s wealth keeps him from the way.
- C. The way will change you.

Applications questions:

1. How is the “way” a response to relativism?

---

---

2. Why do you think that no one can find God without God first “finding” him? Explain.

---

---

3. How have you experienced the peace of the way? Explain.

---

---