

Direction of a Disciple

Jack Mayhall

I. Introduction.

II. The Great Commission. (Matthew 28:16ff)

A. We need to go prior to the main action, which is making disciples. Going is with reference to wherever a person finds himself.

B. Making disciple is the main command. It is what we are to devote our lives to.

C. Baptizing and teaching are the acts that accompany disciple making.

III. The Great Commission gives us something worthwhile to give our lives to.

IV. The power of multiplication is staggering.

Application questions:

1. What does it mean to make disciples?

---

---

2. What is an effective method of disciple making?

---

---

3. How can you engage more in discipleship? Explain.

---

---