

In the Explosive World

J.D. Gray

I. Introduction.

A. Subject: Christ is our hope in this explosive world.

B. Text: John 6:6-9.

II. This world is being bombarded by exploding bodies throughout space—we live in a changing world.

III. Because we have believed something, we have come to live out those beliefs. (Matthew 16:16)

IV. The apostles did not try to calm the world down—they testified contrary to the world that Jesus was the Christ, the Son of God. (Acts 17)

V. Every good thing in the world has come about through the death of Jesus for our sins.

VI. God has a job for us to do—we are called to live out our faith in deeds and proclamation in this explosive world. Jesus is the only hope. (Hebrews 6)

Application Questions:

1. How is a believer supposed to stand fast in an ever-changing world?

2. What beliefs are we supposed to be living out?

3. How are you living out your faith? What are some areas in which you can improve living it out?
