

How to Get Along with Christians

Stuart Briscoe

I. Introduction.

- A. The world is a mess because everyone is looking after himself.
- B. Our minds must be transformed by Christ.
- C. Text: Philippians 2:1-5.

II. Christ is supreme in death.

- A. He was not just a brave man or an idealist dying for us.
- B. The death of the Lord Jesus was God humbling himself to the Father's will.
- C. Jesus' death was integral to the divine plan.
- D. Jesus' death was the greatest demonstration of his superiority.
- E. Jesus' death was the indisputable evidence of the divine love.

III. Christ is supreme in glory.

- A. God exalted Jesus in resurrection and defeated death.
- B. God exalted Jesus to his right hand.
- C. Jesus' exaltation is divine. He is given the name that is above every name.

IV. Every Christian must take on the mind of Christ, which is humbling ourselves in order to be exalted.

V. The attitude of humility must be collective.

Application questions:

1. What is the purpose of Jesus' death?

2. How is Jesus supreme in resurrection? Explain.

3. How can we grow and encourage each other in humility? What kind of results should we expect? Explain.
