

Teen Questions and Answers

Stuart Briscoe

I. Introduction.

II. Abandonment.

A. Abandonment means taking your hand off of your life.

B. Jesus must be allowed to have his way with every single part of our lives.

C. It is important to get back immediately in the right attitude with Jesus when we fail.

D. We do not have to worry about the details--God is in control. (Romans 8:28)

III. After we relinquish control, Jesus promises to guide us. (Proverbs 3:5-6)

A. If you are trusting him then he is responsible to work things out.

B. If God has given you intelligence then a student should progress in what God has given.

C. God guides through circumstances, convictions, His Word and reliable Christian friends.

IV. The remedy of impatience with others.

A. The victory of Jesus is the remedy to any defeat.

B. In a given set of circumstances we find victory in drawing upon Jesus.

V. Bullying?

A. A Christian is not intended to be soft and weak.

B. However, we must be under the authority that is based upon us.

C. Also, we should go the extra mile when asked by someone to go another mile. Kill with kindness.

Application questions:

1. What does abandonment look like and why is it important?

2. How would you encourage others to be more patient with others?

3. What should a Christian response be toward bullying? Explain.
