What Kind of Man Will You Select for Leadership? Skip Gray

I. Introduction.

- A. When training men, we should consider using the curriculum Paul did.
- B. Text: II Timothy 3:10-11.
- II. Curriculum for discipleship.
 - A. Doctrine.
 - 1. This involves conviction and perspective.
 - 2. Conviction is what one believes, and perspective is why one believes.
 - 3. Doctrine must be communicated through lifestyle.
 - B. Lifestyle. Being with people changes lives.
 - C. Purpose.
 - 1. We need goals.
 - 2. We should be able to communicate our purpose to others.
 - D. Faith.
 - E. Longsuffering and patience.
- III. Tips on discipleship.
 - A. Handle disciples in a group and disciple makers man-to-man.
 - B. One must involve the disciple in his or her life.
- IV. The kind of man one will accept for leadership.
 - A. Secure.
 - 1. Self-image.
 - a. He is secure with what God has done in his life and what He will do. (Philippians 1:6)

b. He thinks soberly about the measure of faith that God has be	rought him
(Romans 12:3; 15:7; I Corinthians 4:7; John 3)

- 2. Family image. God holds the head responsible. (Genesis 18:19, I Corinthians 11)
- 3. Concept of the Body of Christ. The key is to make peace with the church.
- B. Submissive.

		4 •		4 •
A	nnlı	cation	aı	uestions:
7 B	PPI	Cution	ч

1. Why is doctrine important?
2. What challenges do you face in becoming more vulnerable? How can you better face the challenges?
3. Why is a proper self-image critical for leadership?