

Looking Toward Heaven, part 7: What the Saints will Do

John MacArthur

I. Introduction.

A. Question: what will the redeemed do in heaven?

1. Believers will never have to struggle with sin again.
2. There will be no more pain, needs or lack of joy.

B. What will we do?

II. We will adore God in Christ forever.

A. The end of salvation is true worship. (John 4)

B. Praise will be uninterrupted. (Revelation 4, 15, 19)

III. We will reign with Christ.

A. This means that we will have responsibilities.

B. We are always living with a sense that our work is not what we want it to be--this will change.

C. We have an inheritance that has to do with the sphere of our authority. (1 Peter 1:3)

D. The authority Christ was given was over us. (Revelation 5)

E. We will each have an area of responsibility. (1 Corinthians 6)

F. Rule will be proportionate to faithfulness in this life. (Matthew 25:14, Luke 19:17)

G. We will be able to enjoy doing jobs to perfection forever. (Revelation 3:21)

Application Questions:

1. How would you respond to someone who says that proportioned rule according to faithfulness is unfair? Explain.

2. How can uninterrupted praise take different forms?

3. Is heaven boring? Explain your answer.
