

Sensitivity to God

Jack Mayhall

I. Introduction.

A. One of the most important characteristics of a man is his sensitivity to God.

B. David was a man who was sensitive to God. (2 Samuel 5:18ff)

II. David was sensitive to the Spirit of God in every situation he faced—he always sought God’s counsel.

III. Saul did not always seek the counsel of God. (1 Samuel 15)

IV. To train ourselves in godliness we must be more sensitive to the Spirit of God and the Word of God. (1 Timothy 4:7)

Application questions:

1. What has a sensitivity toward God produced throughout history?

2. How did David display a sensitivity toward God?

3. How can you develop a sensitivity toward God? Explain.
