

Tell me Again Lord, I Forgot

Carole Mayhall

I. Introduction.

A. Because the Lord is our shepherd, we have all that we need. (Psalm 23)

II. Things we must do to maintain our joy.

A. We need to do things for God and not for men. (Colossians 3:25)

B. We need to give thanks to God in everything. (1 Thessalonians 5:18)

C. God really is the blessed controller of all things.

III. How we can remember what God has done.

A. Be sensitive to God's voice.

B. Know that God has placed you where you are at purposefully.

Application questions:

1. What does biblical joy look like?

2. What are hindrances to this kind of joy?

3. How can you enjoy the joy of God every day? Explain.
