

Isaiah 58
Skip Gray

I. Introduction.

- A. Life is too short to be squandered.
- B. We can either spend our lives or invest them.
- C. There are conditions for investing our lives.

II. We must not impose upon others a yoke or burden that is unfair.

III. We must put away our accusing fingers.

IV. We must put away speaking in vanity. The Holy Spirit will reveal this to us.

V. We must draw forth to the hungry and satisfy the thirsty. (2 Corinthians 12:15)

- A. We are to spend and be spent for others.
- B. It will cost us our soul to live a life of peace.
- C. We have been blessed to bless others.

VI. We must finish our course as Jesus and Paul did. (John 17, Acts 20)

Application questions:

1. Which exhortation stands out to you? Explain.

2. What does it mean to have an accusing finger?

3. How can you be more active in reaching out to the needs in your church both physical and emotional? How can you reach out to the community at large?
