

The Navigator Home, Part 2

Skip Gray

I. Introduction.

II. Selecting men.

- A. They have a heart for God.
- B. They are sensitive.
- C. They are observant.
- D. They are consistent in the basics.
- E. Their family has a positive response.
- F. They are involved in the Navigator process.
- G. They are recruit-able to the Navigators if that is where God leads.

III. Things to understand before you bring a man into your home.

- A. One must be committed to the work and the family.
- B. There needs to be sensitivity to the schedule.
- C. Employment must not demand evenings and weekends.
- D. Some understanding should be established concerning his relationship to the wife.
- E. A doctrine of short accounts should be kept.
- F. The man is not on trial, because this destroys the basic relationship of confidence.

Application questions:

1. Which principle for selecting a man struck you the most? What stood out to you about it?

2. Which point of advice for bringing a man into your home did you think was the most important?

3. What does commitment to the work look like practically? Explain.
