

Training Men

Skip Gray

I. Introduction.

A. We produce after our kind. The spiritual impact of our lives will be after our own kind.

B. Prophecy is speaking the truth. (I Corinthians 14)

1. To edify.

2. To exhort.

3. To comfort.

C. Jesus loved the world, helped thousands and trained twelve. This should be our testimony by and large.

D. There is a curriculum for discipleship.

E. Text: II Timothy 3:10-11.

II. Doctrine.

A. Doctrine is taught through the life.

B. Doctrine is taught through the quiet time, Bible study and Scripture memory.

III. Lifestyle.

A. This requires a high degree of vulnerability and approachability.

B. One cannot separate doctrine and manner of life.

IV. Purpose.

A. Paul had clear objectives.

B. Without objectives, we will produce disciples without objectives.

V. Faith. Faith is best taught in a sinking ship.

VI. Longsuffering and patience.

VII. Comments.

Application questions:

1. Why is doctrine important?

2. What challenges do you face in becoming more vulnerable? How can you better face these challenges?

3. What stood out to you about the comment section? Explain.
