

God's Will

Jack Mayhall

I. Introduction.

A. God has promised to guide us in everyday life as well as major issues. (Philippians 4:6-7, Romans 12:1-2, Psalm 32:8)

B. In between the clear teaching of the Scriptures on what God wants us to do and what he doesn't want us to do, there are areas we need to make decisions.

II. The Spirit of God guides us by giving us peace. (Colossians 3:15)

A. The opposite of peace is confusion, doubt and uneasiness. (Romans 14:23)

B. God is the author of peace and not confusion. (1 Corinthians 14:33)

III. God can use circumstances to reveal his will but only with his peace.

IV. God can use a passage of Scripture to reveal his will but only with his peace.

V. Do not let money determine God's will for you. (Proverbs 3:5-6)

Application questions:

1. How would you counsel someone seeking wisdom in a life decision?

2. What are some practical tips for seeking God's will by reading Scripture?

3. Does God always have one option for us? Explain.
