

The Will of God

Jack Mayhall

I. Introduction.

II. The peace of God in our hearts is one way of determining God's will. (Colossians 3:15)

A. God reserves the right to be unique with each of us. (Romans 14)

B. God is the author of peace and not confusion. (1 Corinthians 14:33)

C. The opposite of peace is confusion, doubt and uneasiness.

D. God will show us his perfect will in his own time. We cannot be impatient. (Isaiah 40:31)

III. Reading through the Scriptures is another way of determining what God is doing in your life.

Application questions:

1. How would you counsel someone seeking wisdom in a life decision?

---

---

2. What are some practical ways we can seek God's will by reading Scripture?

---

---

3. Does God always have one option for us? Explain.

---

---