

Differences: Men and Women

Jack and Carole Mayhall

I. Introduction.

A. Differences are one of the greatest causes of stress in marriage. (Proverbs 24:3)

II. General differences between men and women.

A. Men tend to be more objective, and women tend to be more subjective.

B. Men tend to see the big picture, and women tend to see the little details.

C. Men tend to be more logical, and women tend to be more emotional.

D. Men use speech to convey facts, while women tend to use speech to convey feelings.

E. A man's greatest weakness is his sense of discouragement, while a woman's greatest weakness is her loneliness.

III. We must be kind to one another. (Ephesians 4:33)

IV. The role of the husband. (Ephesians 5)

A. There is no other comparison between the relationship of two people with Christ and the church like we find with the expectation of the husband to love his wife.

B. Three things a husband should do every day.

1. He should say he loves her.

2. He should do something nice for her.

3. He should pay her a compliment.

C. A husband should develop the habit of happiness.

D. A husband's priorities should be the following in order: God, his wife, his children.

Application questions:

1. What are some of the differences you and your spouse have that can cause differences?

---

---

2. What are some specific practical ways you can love your wife better every day?

---

---

3. What do you need to do to make the differences of your spouse and asset? Explain.

---

---