

Vision for Women's Ministry

Jack Mayhall

I. Introduction.

- A. The responsibility to train ourselves for godliness is ours. (1 Timothy 4:7-8)
- B. God will bring things into our lives to help shape us. (Proverbs 15:31-32)
- C. However, we must get into the Scriptures ourselves. (Hebrews 5:14; 12:11)

II. God has a significant place in God's plan and ministry.

III. The Great Commission. (Matthew 28:19-20)

- A. Going precedes making disciples.
- B. The main action is making disciples.
- C. Those who respond to evangelism are to be made into disciples.
- D. The obligation of discipleship is in every nation.
- E. Teaching is involved in the process of making disciples. We need to become good teachers.
- F. Disciples are to be taught all of Jesus' commands. (Matthew 23:3; James 2:10; 1 John 2:3-5; 3:22-24; 5:3)

IV. Prayer for women's ministry. (Luke 6:12-13, Matthew 9:37-38)

- A. Women training centers.
- B. Women trainers.
- C. A women representative on every campus.

Application questions:

1. What does the Great Commission expect of us?

2. How can you personally participate in the Great Commission?

3. What challenges must be overcome to develop healthy women's training programs? Explain.
