

Romans 7:1-8:5
Jack Mayhall

I. Introduction.

A. We ought to have a sense of where we are going, where we have been and have something to show for it.

B. One of the worst things that can happen is coming to the conclusion that one has given his life to something that will not last.

C. Only the Word of God and people will last forever. (1 Thessalonians 2:19-20)

II. Every Christian should know his or her objective.

III. The ministry of multiplication. (2 Timothy 2:2)

IV. The Great Commission.

A. The main command is to make disciples.

B. Disciples should be characterized by their obedience to Jesus.

V. There is power in one life touching another.

Application questions:

1. What is a ministry of multiplication?

2. How can you contribute to the Great Commission? What is your personal responsibility towards it as a Christian?

3. Write down a mission statement for your life in light of the mission statements God gives us in the Bible.
