

Marriage, Home, Children

Skip Gray

I. Introduction.

II. Managing marriage, the home and children.

A. Objectives.

1. Jesus finished the work he had to do. (John 17:4; 19:30)

2. As disciples of Jesus Christ our objectives must be in terms of men. Like Jesus we must make disciples.

B. Opportunities.

C. Resources. Find a man who you can learn from. (Proverbs 13:20)

D. Activities. Spend more time with individuals like Jesus.

E. Time table. Planning is required if one is going to accomplish goals.

III. The promises.

A. Claim specific promises. (Romans 15:13; Isaiah 32:2; Hebrews 11:9; Isaiah 54:13; 60:11; Philippians 2:22)

B. General promises are for all Christians. (1 John 1:9, 1 Corinthians 7:13)

C. Faith without a promise is not faith.

Application questions:

1. Why is it important to have objectives for the home?

2. How do the promises relate to our objectives?

3. What promises can you claim for your life and ministry? Explain.
