

What is a Disciple?

Jack Mayhall

I. Introduction.

A. A disciple is a learner. We need to learn and grow as we go through life.

B. Three things characterize a twentieth century disciple based on the first century disciple. (Acts 16)

II. Timothy grew through the Word of God, which equipped him for every good work. (2 Timothy 1:5; 3:14)

III. Timothy learned to grow as a disciple from other disciples. God wants to teach us how to do the ministry if we are willing to be his follower. (Acts 16)

IV. Timothy learned to be a disciple through the experiences of life. (Proverbs 15:31; Acts 16:16; Hebrews 12:11)
