

The Marks of a Man of God

Jack Mayhall

I. Introduction.

A. Dawson Trotman saw a strong devotional life as the key mark of a man of God. (Acts 6:3)

B. There are at least two things that encompass a strong devotional life.

II. A devotional life encompasses one's life in the Word. (Isaiah 66:2)

A. Lifetime goals: mastery of the Word and obedience to it.

B. The Scriptures equip men for good works. (2 Timothy 3:16)

C. The Scriptures must be applied to the daily matters of life. (Ephesians 5:25, Colossians 3:23)

III. A devotional life encompasses one's life in prayer. (Acts 6:3)

A. We need to develop constant prayer. (1 Thessalonians 5:17)

B. This does not neglect the ordinary matters of life—it is developing the habit of moment by moment contact.

IV. Conclusion. (Jeremiah 23:24)

Application questions:

1. What is your plan for mastering the Bible over your life?

---

---

2. What does it look like to develop a constant prayer life?

---

---

3. What are some ways you can apply Scripture in your daily life this week?

---

---