

Man-to-Man Basics

Jack Mayhall

I. Introduction.

II. There is a repetitive process in man to man basics. (Matthew 28:18-20)

A. Evangelism.

B. Conversion

C. Follow up.

D. Developing disciple leaders.

III. Multiplication, division and personal growth are important. (Colossians 1:28-29, John 17)

IV. There are practical tools for personal growth.

A. Things in the Scriptures related to the life of the disciple. Working with people and sharing our lives is important. (1 Corinthians 3:10, 2 Timothy 3)

B. The importance of the Word of God.

1. Establish this through Bible study. (Psalm 119)

2. Develop a sermon of your own on that subject.

C. God wants us to be skilled master builders and use tools like Scripture memory and Bible study. (1 John 5:13, 2 Timothy 3:16, Luke 21:23)

Application questions:

1. What are some tools for personal growth?

2. How can you get into Scripture memory and Bible study in a more effective way?

3. What are some ways you can introduce others to Scripture memory and Bible study?
