

Discernment

Jack Mayhall

I. Introduction.

A. Text: Psalm 23.

B. God knows us intimately and is concerned for us. (John 10)

II. The thing we most need to hear sometimes is that God's presence will go with us. (Exodus 33; Deuteronomy 3:26)

III. We should have a sensitivity built in us from our walk with God to distinguish between good and evil. (Hebrews 5)

A. This comes from constant use and obedience to the Word of God.

B. We need to exercise discernment when we read Christian books.

Application questions:

1. What is biblical discernment?

2. Why is biblical discernment necessary?

3. How can we become more discerning?
