

The Promises of God.

Jack Mayhall

I. Introduction.

A. Text: Exodus 32:33.

B. We are responsible for God's people, but they are also his people.

C. God had confidence in Moses, and he has confidence in us.

II. The only thing that distinguishes us as a group of people is that God is with us.

III. God is not in the business of giving us a raw deal—he is in the business of developing us if we rely upon God.

IV. Our success in Christian ministry will depend upon our reliance upon God.

V. The book of Job confirms the missing piece of life circumstances is with him. Those things that are revealed belong to us. (Deuteronomy 29:29)

VI. God does not say no to his promises. (2 Peter 1:2-3, 2 Corinthians 1:20, Philippians 4:6-7, Isaiah 55)

VII. The key is not the promise but the Promiser.

Application questions:

1. What is the valuable of seeking the Scriptures for God's promises?

2. What is one of your favorite promises?

3. How can we apply the promises of God to our lives?
