

Testimony and Closing Remarks

Lorne Sanny

I. Introduction.

- A. What God does He does forever. What we do does not last very long.
- B. The speaker's word from God: "very" (Joshua 1:7)

II. Courage is a mental willingness to endure.

- A. It is a perfect sensibilities as to the dangers, but the mental willingness to stick it out.
- B. Success is never final; failure is seldom fatal. It is courage that counts. (Churchill)
 - 1. There is always a bigger mountain to climb.
 - 2. God sees us through those difficult places.
 - 3. The accumulation of difficult experiences build up hope that God will see us through. (Romans 5)
- C. We hang through difficulties and we should seek to do so with a smile on our face.
- D. Be very courageous.

Application questions

1. What is courage?

2. Why is failure seldom fail?

3. How can hope come from surviving difficulties?
