

Missionary Meeting

Stuart Briscoe

I. Introduction.

A. There is a great unfinished task.

B. Jesus commanded us to evangelize the nations.

C. There are far more people being born daily than born again. The church is a long way from fulfilling the Great Commission.

D. Evangelicals would say that they are not ashamed of the gospel, but practically it does not appear this way.

II. The gospel is good news--we need to embrace its goodness personally.

III. The gospel is power of salvation--it is the ability to do what we believe.

IV. Evangelism is the church's preservation of defeat, but those in the church largely lack the conviction that those living in the world are dead.

A. We ought to count ourselves dead.

B. We ought to be eager to share the gospel.

C. We ought to be willing to go to some dangerous places.

Application questions:

1. What is the gospel?

---

---

2. What is our responsibility toward the gospel?

---

---

3. How will you strengthen your convictions regarding the gospel? Explain.

---

---