Women Ministering to Muslim Women

Ruth Ripkin

One in four women in the world is a Muslim. Many will never hear about the Savior except through a woman. It is an amazing opportunity and blessing given us to make Christ known in some of the toughest places among some of the most unreached and unengaged peoples on the earth. They will only come to Christ if we take up the challenge to share Christ with them. Learn ways to make this happen as we take on this wonderful challenge.
