

Share the News

A.W. Tozer

I. Christian witness without power is inadequate and injurious.

A. There must be a power imbued witness.

1. Nothing can stand before this.

2. Today Christians lie around and pay others to witness for us.

a. The individual should be witnessing too.

b. The evangelist should supplement our witness, not be our proxy.

c. If individuals were giving the witness, the testimony would be more powerful.

d. Evangelists have their place, but the church should be the witness.

3. The church is sleepy.

a. The soldiers of the war spend too much time sitting out the war.

b. We are playing instead of fighting-all too concerned with functions.

B. A witness says, I saw and I heard, and this is what the Lord did for me.

Application questions.

1. What is the proper role of evangelists in the church? How have we passively let them take over the function of individuals within the church?

---

---

2. Why is it that a witness without power might be injurious?

---

---

3. How is your witness? Can you think of anyone in your own environment that needs to hear of the transforming power of Jesus Christ? What will you do to bear the message to them?

---

---