

Priorities

Skip Gray

I. Introduction.

II. All of life is sacred.

A. Knowing this will impact how we use our financial and emotional resources.

B. One is vulnerable to false guilt when he or she separates the sacred from the secular.

C. Whatsoever we do we are to do it for the Lord.

III. We approach our tasks with a spirit of faith and hope. (1 Corinthians 15:58)

IV. Suggestions.

A. Nurture your self-esteem through intimacy with Christ. (Colossians 3:4)

B. Be Christ-like in your ministry. Speak the truth in love. (Acts 10:38)

Application questions:

1. In what ways has our society separated the sacred from the secular?

2. In what ways do you fall prey to the separation of sacred and secular?

3. In what ways can you visualize yourself being more Christ-like in your ministry? Explain.
