

Inevitability of Consequences

Skip Gray

I. Introduction.

- A. Text: I Corinthians 3:10-15.
- B. We make some choices and then God sends the test.
- C. There are consequences to our choices.
- D. We live in denial in a thousand different ways.

II. Foundation. The basis of our lives is a personal relationship with Jesus Christ.

III. Building.

- A. We build our house on values.
- B. In our building, our life we must be open handed with what comes.

IV. Fire.

- A. We choose the material, but God sends the test.
- B. Jacob got away with being a cheater for a long time, but God sent a test. (Genesis 32)
- C. God wanted Jacob to admit who he was.
- D. We need to slow down and be honest with who we are to God, so that we can receive a new “name” and new power.
- E. God has a special place for the handicapped in heart.

Application questions:

1. How has God tested you in your journey?

---

---

2. Why are tests an important part of our Christian life?

---

---

3. What does it mean to receive a new “name” by God? Explain.

---

---