

God's Truth

Irma Warr

I. Introduction.

A. Christian women are often distracted from putting Jesus forward as their model for relationships.

II. We need to figure out how to love people practicing false religions and then when the time is right pull away their falseness to be replaced with real truth. (Matthew 23:13-33)

III. We need to reach out and touch the outcasts. (Mark 1:40; Luke 7:11-16)

IV. We need to pour out our love from the love we have received from God. (Jeremiah 31:3; Isaiah 43:4)

V. We need to make ourselves available for the emotional needs of others. (Luke 7:11-16)

VI. We need to be able to tell people that we do not condemn them but also that they should not sin any longer. (John 8)

Application questions:

1. What are some ways you can address false religion with a loving spirit?

2. Who are the outcasts in your community?

3. What are some ways you can make yourself available to those facing emotional needs? Explain.
