

Joys and Blessings of Obedience

Gene Warr

I. Introduction.

A. With obedience comes prosperity and with disobedience comes adversity.

II. The results of obedience.

A. Abiding in God's love. (John 15:10)

B. Being a friend of God. (John 5:14)

C. Being a peculiar treasure to God. (Exodus 19:5)

D. A worthwhile and long life. (Proverbs 3:1-2)

E. A real and enjoyable life. (Leviticus 18:5)

F. God's blessing on our life. (Deuteronomy 28:2; Ephesians 5:9-10)

G. The gift and fullness of the Holy Spirit. (Acts 5:32)

H. Purifying our souls. (1 Peter 1:22; 1 John 3:22; Joshua 1:7)

I. The love of Christ. (John 14:21)

J. The revelation and indwelling of God. (John 14:23)

III. We disobey God...

A. Because we have a weak relationship with him.

B. Because we do what we want to do (we think we know what is best for us). (Ephesians 1:8; Hebrews 11:26)

C. Because we think God is doing something bad to us. But God has our best interests at heart. (Jeremiah 29:11; Genesis 50:20; Proverbs 30:8-9; Deuteronomy 8:2-3; John 15; Romans 8:28)

D. Because we think God cannot handle a situation. But...

1. God is sovereign. (Isaiah 46:10; Psalm 115:3; Isaiah 14:23, 27)

2. God knows what is going on. (Hebrews 4:13)

3. God has all power. (Matthew 28:18)
