

Projection/Future

Gene Warr

I. Introduction.

II. Projection of the future for our nation.

A. We are in for trouble.

B. We do not know what form the trouble will take.

III. We do not panic because God knows what is going on and has control. (Psalm 115:3; Daniel 4:35; Job 12:23; Acts 17:26; Job 23:10; Isaiah 14:24, 27; Ephesians 1:9-10; Ecclesiastes 3:13)

IV. Things that can foreshadow and bring about war.

A. The bankruptcy of a government foreshadows revolution.

B. Climate can foreshadow war.

C. Associations affect war.

D. There is great similarity with what happens in the market and what happens in war.

E. Intoxication of successful violence is the suicide of civilization.

F. Our cities are on the brink of many dangers such as class war and unmet expectations.

G. The philosophy of situational ethics ultimately leads to war.

V. We need to make some decision in our mind regarding where we are headed.

VI. Priorities for preparation.

A. Water.

B. Food.

C. Clothing and shelter.

D. Protection.

VII. The US is the greatest missionary sending nation, the Jews are to be taken care of as the US has done and there are still a great number of God-fearing people in the nation.

Application questions:

1. What are some signs of a nation's collapse?

2. What is your stance on being physically prepared for a cataclysm?

3. What is a healthy Christian response to end time prophecies?
