President of FCCI / Christ@Work

Kent grew up working in the family business, Jack's Merchandising and Distribution, a general merchandise distributor to retailers. After marrying Davidene, and graduating from the University of Oklahoma (BA), he spent four years in the U.S. Army. He returned home in 1972 to buy the business with two brothers, which he operated for twenty-five years. In 2000, Kent started American Health Diagnostics.

In 2002, he accepted the position of President of Fellowship of Companies for Christ International. FCCI equips and encourages Christian business owners who desire to use their companies as a platform for ministry. During the past thirty years, Kent has spent much of his time ministering to business leaders and pastors across the country through speaking, writing, and mentoring. Kent is a popular speaker who has spoken for such organizations as FCCI International Conference of CEO's, Leighton Ford, Southeastern Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, and Laussane II (Manila).

Kent Humphreys has served as the president of Christ@Work since 2002. Kent is responsible for leading this workplace arm of Crown Financial Ministries. This ministry to business owners and executives represents the practical application of Crown's Business by the Book seminars and small group studies. Overseas, it operates under the name of Crown Companies.

Kent continues active ownership of four businesses in distribution, manufacturing, and real estate. He has spoken around the world and has authored two books, including Lasting Investments, NavPress, 2004.

A Pastor's Guide for Equipping Workplace Leaders to Leave a Spiritual Legacy
by Kent Humphreys

A solid investment strategy for pastors.

What do pastors and marketplace leaders share in common? More than you'd think! Both groups lead lives of constant pressure, responsibility, and demand. And for both, time is a most rare commodity. But with a wise pastoral investment of your insight and expertise, you can empower business leaders to make a difference in their sphere of influence—and increase your own ministry in the process.

Until now, many have overlooked the ministry potential of businesspeople. A perceived chasm between the spiritual and the secular has masked the common goals and visions that pastors and workplace leaders share.

CEO and author Kent Humphreys wants to change this. In Lasting Investments, he uses Jesus' model in the gospel of Mark as a guide to offer pastors a time-efficient format to help them:

- identify individuals in whom they can invest
- extend their ministry beyond the church walls
- equip others with basic pastoral skills
- build a legacy that will last for generations

See for yourself how even a small investment of your time and energy into these like-minded leaders can empower them to become ministers in the marketplace. With this doable, concise plan, you will shepherd these individuals to follow God's call and find yourself mutually blessed as well.
