You don't have to pretend you've got it all together. . . when you don't. You don't have to pretend your best relationship deeply satisfies . . . when it doesn't. You don't have to pretend your struggle with sin is a thing of the past . . . when it isn't.

"Only Christians have the capacity to never pretend," says Larry Crabb. That's because real change is possible only when you face the realities of your internal life and let God mold you into a person who is free to be honest, courageous, and loving.

If you want a more vital union with God, a richer relationship with others, and a deeper sense of personal wholeness, let Larry Crabb help you look inside yourself and discover how God works real, liberating change when you live from the inside out. This new edition of Larry Crabb's classic work now includes the twelve-week study guide.

WHAT MAKES YOU MAD?

If someone keeps you from achieving your goal, do you get angry? What do you do with those feelings - keep them bottled up inside or lash out at those around you?

Well-known author and psychologist Larry Crabb offers down-to-earth counsel about how to handle these emotions. He talks about the differences between goals and desires and what factors to weigh when deciding whether or not to express your feelings. The booklet concludes with some questions for reflection and action and some verses for meditation.

WHAT DO YOUR RELATIONSHIPS SAY ABOUT HOW YOU RELATE TO GOD?

Life is all about relationships. How we relate to others reveals a lot about how we relate to God. But relationships are fragile, and it doesn't take much to get them off course.

Ironically, it's when our relationships are on edge that we are best suited to grow - personally, spiritually, and relationally. In Understanding Who You Are, Dr. Larry Crabb reveals five key truths about people, helping us examine the way we respond to relational problems and discover the underlying issues that allow our relationships to get off track.

Understanding Who You Are will give you the tools you need to heal broken relationships and develop a more intimate relationship with God.
